The Word On The Street Toronto is Canada's largest book and magazine festival with 17 programming areas that attract over 200,000 festival-goers each year on the last Sunday in September. Festival organizers are very pleased to announce the return of the following venues:

- The Cooks 'n' Books Stage (presented by Madison Press Books) is the go-to venue for food lovers who wish to see Canada's leading chefs demonstrate recipes from their latest cookbooks. Join Laura Calder, Martin Kouprie, Mark McEwan and Jennifer McLagan.
- The Remarkable Reads Tent (sponsored by Random House of Canada Ltd. and McClelland & Stewart) features all your favourite and soon-to-be favourite authors through engaging literary programming. Visit The Remarkable Reads Tent for presentations by Kelley Armstrong, Linwood Barclay and Terry Fallis.
- The Sony Reader Lounge invites festival patrons to test-drive the latest e-readers and speak with Sony experts to learn about the exciting future of digital reading.
- The Toronto Star Tent is a must-see destination which showcases popular Toronto Star columnists discussing a range of current affairs topics.

About The Word On The Street:

Every year on the last Sunday in September, in the cities of Vancouver, Saskatoon, Kitchener, Toronto, and Halifax, The Word On The Street festivals unite the country in a national celebration of literacy and the written word. Annually attracting over 200,000 visitors to its Queen's Park location, The Word On The Street Toronto is the largest book and magazine festival in Canada.
