

David Hansen, Halifax Public Library representative

David is a manager at the Keshen Goodman branch of the Halifax Public Libraries. He is a member of the library's Readers' Services Team and is the adult mystery fiction selector. David is also involved in the planning of adult programming and author readings at Halifax Public Libraries and is the editor of TheReader.ca, a leisure reading blog.

David was born and raised in Nova Scotia, but spent his formative teen and college days in sunny Newfoundland and claims dual citizenship.

David's recent favourite books are Tiger: a true story of vengeance and survival by John Valliant and Motorcycles and Sweetgrass by Drew Hayden Taylor.

An author that David would like to have dinner with, Pico Iyer.
