

Heather Fegan, Board CO-Chair

Heather is the Projects Manager at the Atlantic Publishers Marketing Association and the managing editor of Atlantic Books Today magazine. Also an active volunteer for the Atlantic Book Awards Society and the Atlantic Magazines Association, Heather can often be found surrounded by great Atlantic Canadian Books and magazines. She is thrilled that her love for books and the written word carries over into her work everyday. When not working and volunteering within the literary community, Heather is busy serving as president of the Halifax Chapter of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of Canada and chairing their All That Glitters Gala Committee.
