

Contest Rules and Regulations

1. To enter

To enter a The Word On The Street contest, you must fill out the online entry form that is available at http://thewordonthestreet.ca/toronto/whats_on_contests.asp, or enter via email as per directions in The Latest Word, The Word On The Street's newsletter.

All entries must include the following information:

- (a) Name, telephone number, e-mail address
- (b) The correct answer to the question provided on the entry form.

The contest will run for the period indicated on The Word On The Street contest page and/or newsletter. No purchase is necessary. There is a limit of one (1) entry per person, per e-mail address.

Entries become the property of The Word On The Street and will not be returned to contestants. The odds of winning a prize are directly related to the number of valid entries received.

2. Eligibility

The contest is open to all Ontario residents. An entrant under the age of 13 must have the consent of his/her parent or legal guardian to submit their personal information in order to enter the contest. The parent/legal guardian must complete all of the required fields on the relevant portion of the Internet entry form, including his/her name and email address. If a parent/legal guardian does not provide consent, the entrant will be disqualified. Directors, officers and employees of The Word On The Street, the publisher(s) of the prize(s) as indicated on the entry form, their affiliates and their family members are not eligible to enter the contest.

3. Procedure for Awarding Prize

On the contest end date, a representative of The Word On The Street will conduct a random draw to select the winner from all eligible entries received during the contest period.

The winner will be contacted by e-mail or telephone during the week following the draw. The winner should claim their prize as instructed by The Word On The Street no later than fourteen (14) days after the date they were initially contacted. Prizes will not be mailed. If the prize is not claimed within this period, or if a winner cannot be contacted within seven (7) days following the draw, a new draw will be held, and a new winner will be selected.

4. Description of Prize

The prize description and value is available on The Word On The Street contest page and/or newsletter. Prize may not be exactly as shown in the contest promotion materials.

5. General Rules

- (a) To be declared a winner, the contestant must send an email to newsletter@thewordonthestreet.ca, with their name and phone number.
- (b) The winner will agree to have his/her name used for advertising purposes related to this contest, free of charge.
- (c) The prize shall be accepted as awarded and may not be exchanged for cash or transferred. No substitutions will be allowed.
- (d) An individual may only win a contest run by The Word On The Street once in a six month period.
- (e) If the prize cannot be awarded as described, The Word On The Street, the publisher(s) of the prize(s) and their affiliates, as well as their respective directors, officers and employees, reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to substitute the prize awarded with a prize of equivalent or greater value.
- (f) Should a contestant make any false statement, he/she will be automatically disqualified from the contest.
- (g) The Word On The Street, the publisher(s) of the prize(s) and their affiliates, as well as their respective directors, officers and employees, will assume no liability resulting from losses, delays, mistaken mail or e-mail addresses, typographical errors, technical, computer or telephone malfunctions, loss or theft of computer or telephone data, damage to software or computer equipment, fraudulent calls or any other mistake.
- (h) All personal information is collected solely for the purpose of administering this contest and shall not be used for any other purpose without consent. By providing this information, the contestant consents to it being used for the stated purposes.
- (i) By entering the contest, the contestant agrees to abide by the contest rules which shall be applied by The Word On The Street.
- (j) Contest rules are available on The Word On The Street website.